JUNIOR BOARDING NEWS: Ms Naylor reports:

Last weekend the boarders visited London Zoo – the girls really enjoyed seeing all the animals, particularly the lion cubs! Some of the girls found out exactly what it was like to be a meerkat - as you can see from the photo, they look very at home!

This week we also had our first boarder's birthday celebration of the year! We celebrated in style with a fabulous jelly bean birthday cake and the first form area was decorated with balloons, ready for the birthday tea party.

On Wednesday, we celebrated Mexican Independence Day. With the help of our two Mexican gap students, the girls made a variety of piñatas and other traditional Mexican decorations and enjoyed a Mexican supper followed by the fun of piñata beating and singing - with Miss Sousa leading from the table!

This weekend the boarders will be visiting Madame Tussaud's Museum of Wax – we are all really looking forward to having our pictures taken with the celebrities - watch this space for some photos!

The weekend of September 25 – 27 is an exeat. Please do let me know if your daughter needs to stay later than 6.00pm on Friday.

Finally, if you are dropping your daughter at school on Monday morning, please join us for coffee and a chat in the Boarding House.
