

PRIORSFIELD SIXTH

Sixth Form: Miss Picken reports:

Summer has started with a flurry of activity and the Sixth Form girls have returned ready for one of their toughest terms.

On Friday 23rd April we took a group of boarders to a hustings event in Godalming which allowed them a great insight in to local and wider politics. We heard local candidates from Conservative, Labour, Lib Dem, Green, UKIP, and Pirate Parties as well as an independent candidate explain why we should support them in this election campaign. The local community was pleased to see young adults taking an interest and this helped spark the girls' political curiosity. Last night, election fever was stoked further when some of the girls visited Charterhouse for a Question Time panel and more discussion of some thorny issues.

pf junior boarding

Junior Boarding: Mrs Roberts-Barter reports

After a rather bumpy start to the term, we now have all our boarders back in the fold!

Last weekend we stayed 'local' and the girls enjoyed swimming, playing rounders, eating ice lollies in the sun, visiting Godalming Market and generally taking advantage of the weather on Saturday. On Sunday, they enjoyed a trip to Guildford and to the cinema to see Dear John.

This weekend the girls are off home to enjoy the long weekend. Next weekend all fingers are crossed for some good weather as we will be heading down to Gunwharf Quays in Portsmouth.

Room of the week last week went to: Amy Crawford and Molly Eve, this week's winners are Nina Cave, Sarah Jenkinson, Abbey Pritchard and Phoebe Palmer – well done girls!

